apartment. I have used them for everything from hanging pictures to build fence around my farm. I have tried other brands and they dont hold a candle to dewalt and the 20v system is amazing my only recommendation is get the 4ah or higher battery. I have used these to run in 10" lag bolts they are amazing.

Awesome Purchase

The size and power doesn't match. The driver is light weight but has plenty of power. The life of the battery is amazing with not requiring a charge after or during every project.

Great Driver

This is the first Dewalt tool I have owned. My friends have always owned them and said don't buy anything else. I have always wanted an Impact driver, so I bought one. I'm building a new flight of stairs and i'm so excited to get it. It is everything I expected great batterie life and just flat out works. I'm now looking to add to my list of Dewalt tools for building home projects. Do the rite thing and just buy there line of products. You won't be disapointed.

Misleading

I am very disappointed. My issue is not with the DCF809 itself. These reviews are misleading. They do not actually review the DCF809 but are general applications for the giveaway entry. On the .com site it is the same and they often mention in five star reviews that owners love the 3 power settings switch... there is no 3 speed power switch on this model! Dewalt this is disappointing.

I bought this product about a year ago and since then I'm very happy with the results, it gives me a lot of confidence to use it knowing that its battery will last all day and the power that I need, it is very reliable compared to other impact drills I used before, very tough and durable, I really enjoy having it and using it.

I've had my impact for over 4 years it's gone through so much! Drops, hard work, there is no other impact even comparable to DeWalt's line. DeWalt tools are high quality for a reasonable price. Highly recommended brand in general! DeWalt is the only tool brand I buy

Awesome performance

I recently bought a new impact but had to try the atomic series and let's just say it didn't disappoint In any way. Out of the 4 other model impacts i have this is by far my favorite.
